

Nuclear Weapons, Justice and the Law

Elli Louka

Founder, Alphanetics, USA

Edward Elgar

Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA

Contents

Foreword W. Michael Reisman	vii
List of abbreviations	viii
1 State of war	1
1 Conventional war	1
2 Unconventional war	6
3 Mass destruction war I	8
4 Mass destruction war II	11
5 Use of space	22
6 Persistent conflict	30
2 Risk management in national security strategies	34
1 Strategies for risk management	34
2 Security strategies of nuclear weapon states	38
3 Security strategies of threshold nuclear weapon states	64
4 Views from the outside	70
5 National security strategies and global transparency	75
3 Nuclear weapons and nuclear energy: the connection	78
1 From Chernobyl to nuclear renaissance?	78
2 Using the nuclear fuel cycle to make nuclear weapons	89
4 The architecture of the non-proliferation order	98
1 The Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty	98
2 The safeguards system	103
3 Export controls	123
4 Unleashing the might of the UN Security Council	134
5 Making exceptions: the case of India	155
6 Outlawing nuclear testing	159
7 Zones and areas free of nuclear weapons	167
5 The fairness and effectiveness of the non-proliferation order	185
1 Preemption and precaution in the UN system and state practice	185
2 Global order	196
3 Global justice and nuclear weapons	202
4 The nuclear non-proliferation order	204
5 Effectiveness of non-proliferation	215

6	Enforcement	222
7	The future of nuclear weapons	223
6	The threat of nuclear terrorism: how to make the world proliferation resistant	231
1	Loose nukes and illicit networks	231
2	International anti-terrorism legislation	235
3	Anti-terrorism initiatives	238
4	Nuclear terrorism: the unmet challenge	249
7	Just and effective international institutions	252
1	The role of the International Atomic Energy Agency	252
2	The structure of the International Atomic Energy Agency	256
3	Standards for safety and security	259
4	Who controls the fuel cycle: fairness of cartels and fuel banks	267
5	An effective International Atomic Energy Agency	275
6	Looking back and looking ahead: the 2010 review of non-proliferation	278
8	Just and effective regional institutions	282
1	European Union case study: Euratom	282
2	Brazil–Argentina case study	301
9	Can a nuclear war be a just war?	308
1	Nuclear weapons and the survival of states: the opinion of the International Court of Justice	308
2	The use of nuclear weapons in war: principles of humanitarian law	318
10	Controlling nuclear weapons	338
1	The military–industrial complex	338
2	Arms control instruments	341
3	Strategies for nuclear disarmament and arms control	344
4	Instruments of nuclear arms control	346
5	The Open Skies Treaty	358
6	Anti-Ballistic Missile Treaty and missile defense	360
7	Verification of disarmament	363
8	Prospects of a Fissile Material Cutoff Treaty	374
11	Enforcement, preemption and precautionary self-defense	380
1	Attacking nuclear reactors	380
2	Anticipatory self-defense and preemption	392
3	The role of covert operations	400
4	Enforcement and the fairness and effectiveness of non-proliferation	405
5	Precautionary self-defense and the world order	409
	Index	417